

Santa Clara City Library presents:

Ron Hansen

Wednesday
September 24, 2008
7:00 p.m.
Cedar Room

Central Park Library
2635 Homestead Road
Santa Clara, CA

Join local author Ron Hansen, as he discusses his new novel, Exiles, and talks about his books and writing. A graduate of Creighton University, Hansen also attended the University of Iowa Writers' Workshop, and was a Wallace Stegner Creative Writing Fellow at Stanford University. He is the author of a number of books, including Atticus, Hitler's Niece, The Assassination of Jesse James, and Mariette in Ecstasy. Ron Hansen currently is the Gerald Manley Hopkins Professor in the Arts and Humanities at Santa Clara University, where he teaches writing and literature.

Sign up for this free program at the Reference Desk, or call (408) 615-2900.

